APRONS

APRONS THAT CONNECT THE WORLD

In the world of hospitality in which we are all a part, our aprons connect continents, cultures, peoples, religions and languages. Food and drinks are universal connectors. Every individual on this planet comes into contact with the hospitality industry.

When visiting any catering establishment, high culinary expectations are taken for granted, but often the importance of the appearance of the serving staff is overlooked. This is where Pavelinni offers great added value. Our catering aprons are an extension of the image of the establishment and the style of the kitchen.

With our aprons, we want to merge the artistic world of the chef with the presentation of the serving staff: Aprons That Connect The World. Together with four chefs, Pavelinni takes you on a journey around the world.

Each chef has developed his favourite apron, so that the apron matches the style of their cuisine and the image of their restaurant. The result is remarkable. Our expertise in manufacturing, combined with their practical experience in the hospitality industry, has resulted in three contemporary lines of aprons.

The name of each line is linked to a culinary city close to each chef's heart. Thus, our world tour starts in Tongeren and we make four stops in Barcelona (Jo), Copenhagen (Dimitry), San Sebastian (Jan) and Berlin (Axel) respectively.

“BERLIN IS A CITY THAT’S ALIVE AND FOCUSES ON REJUVENATION.
VERY APPEALING TO CHEFS.”

AXEL COLONNA-CESARI CENTPOURCENT

BERLIN

The aprons are high quality, beautifully designed and match Centpourcent perfectly. They have a minimalist design with an eye for detail. Moreover, they are light and do not put pressure on the neck. This is important to me and many other chefs. If you put 10 aprons side by side, I would pick this one out immediately.

An apron is like a part of ourselves. My choice of my uniform, including apron alongside the chef's jacket, is of great importance. Many chefs these days work in open kitchens, where people see us at work. It is crucial that we look stylish and neat, in line with the look of the restaurant.

Centpourcent, a gourmet restaurant in Sint-Katelijne-Waver, immediately captured a Michelin star in its inaugural year in 2011. Chef Axel Colonna-Cesari is the driving force behind this culinary masterpiece, together with his partner Anneleen Soethaert.

“BARCELONA IS EEN PLAATS WAAR IK
ME GOED VOEL. HET IS EEN PLEK WAAR
IK ME OP CULINAIR VLAK KAN TERUGVINDEN”

JO GROOTAERTS - ALTER

BARCELONA

The way Jo Grootaerts from Alter handles attention and his staff is reflected in his kitchen. “My cooking style is very no-nonsense. What you see is what you get. No hidden techniques. Everything is pure. In the kitchen, we don’t concern ourselves with things we shouldn’t. I find that important.”

The kitchen is his territory, but the chef is also concerned and involved in all the other aspects that come with a Michelin-starred restaurant. Like the attire of the front-of-house staff. “A beautiful apron contributes to the establishment’s image. When I have to come to the table for the guests, I also want to look presentable. That’s part of gastronomy.

The image needs to be consistent in every aspect. People should think, ‘Wow, they all look neat.’ They should see that we pay attention to every detail. I am very satisfied with the end result of my apron. Very beautiful, sleek, and modern. It’s not a traditional server’s apron and it fits perfectly with Alter’s interior.”

“IN SAN SEBASTIAN, THE BLEND BETWEEN THE ‘ORDINARY’ CUISINE IN THE OLD CITY AREA AND THE MICHELIN-STAR LEVEL IN THE NEW PART STRONGLY APPEALS TO ME.”

JAN MENTEN - DE MIJLPAAL

SAN SEBASTIAN

Jan Menten of De Mijlpaal only works with top-quality products. "Price is not important. We have a real product-focused kitchen. Product and flavor are very important. That's how I build our kitchen. And a good sauce, that's where my strength lies. Fantasies come in third place for me."

"I find our San Sebastian apron line very rejuvenating, and the colors match the restaurant."

A restaurant where the staff wears nice aprons usually also serves good food. It sends a signal. A beautiful apron immediately creates a positive image and also reveals that people are concerned with much more than just food."

A man with short brown hair, wearing a blue denim shirt and a dark blue apron with brown leather straps, stands outdoors. He is looking off to the side with a thoughtful expression. The background is a soft-focus forest with yellow and green foliage. The apron has a logo that reads "magis restaurant" with a starburst icon above the word "magis".

“IN COPENHAGEN, THERE’S A HIGH LEVEL OF PROFESSIONALISM IN THE HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY. SOMEONE FROM THE FRONT-OF-HOUSE CAN BE IN THE KITCHEN AND VICE VERSA.”

DIMITRY LYSENS - MAGIS

KOPENHAGEN

For Dimitry Lysens of Magis, gastronomy is purely about the plate: good food and good wines. “There obviously needs to be something spectacular happening on my plate, but not overly complicated. Simplicity enhances the dishes. That’s the art. My cuisine is as close to the basics as possible, but I still have to meet certain expectations. Extremes are not part of that in Flanders.”

“Everything starts with friendliness in service. From the moment people walk in, this should be radiated. In achieving this atmosphere, Pavelinni’s aprons help. Aprons also aid in better explaining the idea and concept of the restaurant. Moreover, the aprons need to be coherent with the interior and the dishes. The better these fit together, the more pleasant it is for the people,” concludes Dimitry.

MAINTENANCE

To fully enjoy our products, we offer some useful tips for maintaining your table runners, placemats, and accessories.

Table Runners, Placemats, and Accessories:

Cleaning Spray

Use our special cleaning spray to maintain Pavelinni's eco-leather products effectively. This spray provides deep cleaning and care for the product, ensuring it stays fresh and clean.

Regular Cleaning

After each use, we recommend cleaning your item. Avoid using products that contain corrosive elements.

Removing Wrinkles

If you notice wrinkles in your Pavelinni table runners, you can easily smooth them out. Place a damp towel over the table runner and iron it at a low temperature. Over time, as the table runner or placemat lies on the table, the wrinkles will naturally disappear.

Using a Washing Machine

It's possible to wash your Pavelinni table runner and/or placemat in the washing machine. However, avoid using the spin cycle, as it may damage the fabric. Keep in mind that a longer drying time may be required after washing.

By following these simple maintenance tips, you can ensure that your Pavelinni products remain in optimal condition, allowing you to enjoy their elegance and durability for years to come.
